

ON IMPORTED LABOR

The Coke Operators Must Chiefly Depend to Break the Strike.

ONE BAD DEFECTION IS REPORTED.

An Invention to Displace Dynamo in Petroleum Fields.

A LIVING FROG IN A MAN'S STOMACH

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTTDALE, April 30.—It is now a fact that the main weapon of the coke operators to break the great strike will be new or imported men, as it has been demonstrated that it is impossible to break the strike with the few deserters from the ranks of the strikers.

ON EX-SENATOR INGALLS FARM

In a Grave About Which Is Woven a Very Romantic Story.

ATCHESON, Kan., April 30.—In the center of Senator Ingalls' 30-acre tract farm, south of this city, surrounded by trees and covered with blue grass, is a grave which evidently received considerable attention for many years. It is supposed to contain the remains of an Indian girl and her pale-face lover.

FOND OF A CIRCUIS

The Venerable Senator Morrill Clings to the Love of His Boyhood.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The venerable Senator Justin S. Morrill, of Vermont, has written to take in a circuit whenever it is within reach, and notwithstanding the fact that he is 81 years old on the 14th of this month he attended Foreport's this afternoon, accompanied by his private secretary, and appeared to enjoy the performance with the enthusiasm of youth.

NINETEEN YOUNG CAR ROBBERS

At Their Preliminary Hearing All Are Held for Court.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 30.—The little office of Alderman W. L. Douglas, about three miles above New Albany, was the scene of a robbery on the afternoon of the 28th, when 19 young men, all of whom were heard separately, the most of them being young boys charged with robbing cars. Some of the cases were for robbing a car on the 28th, and others for robbing a car on the 29th.

DOING AWAY WITH DYNAMITE

A Drill Invented in Washington, Pa., That Will Interest Oil Men.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 30.—J. A. Addison, of Quakertown, Pa., is in the city, showing to oil men an interesting invention that he claims will take the place of nitroglycerine. He is having a model made, and it is said by oil men that it will do the work of dynamite.

WAR OVER A DIVISION FENCE

The Farmer Worsted in the Conflict Now in a Demeaned Condition.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

INDIANA, Pa., April 30.—Andrew Orr and Stanton Hays, living four miles east of this place, are occupying adjoining farms. They have recently been having some trouble over a fence line. Mr. Hays had his line surveyed and erected, but Mr. Orr was dissatisfied with the location and engaged a surveyor to re-survey the line. The next day Mr. Orr had the fence taken back to its original position, and during the process of the work a collision occurred in which Mr. Orr's horse was worsted. This occurred on a Sunday, and he has become fractious, and his case is considered critical.

A POLITICAL SKIRMISH

Longsacker Wins in Over King in the Bedford Judging Fight.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

REDFORD, April 30.—The Republican County Committee met today, and fixed on the 8th of June as the time for holding the County Convention. More than fifty candidates were nominated, as the strength of the candidates for the judgeship was expected to crop out.

HAD A FROG IN HIS STOMACH

A Boyton Man Gets Rid of a Disagreeable and Dangerous Guest.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

DAYTON, April 30.—Louis Whitcomb has been in a bad way for the past year. He suffered continuously with a peculiar sensation in his stomach, as if there was something alive in it. The thing seemed to crawl into his throat, and would sometimes almost strangle him to death. Monday last he was something like a colic, and yesterday afternoon the patient was relieved of something which had the appearance of a frog, which was something which he had suffered no inconvenience. The doctor said that it was a live frog that caused him so much trouble.

PANIC IN A MENAGERIE

Tents Blown Down, and the Animals and Spectators in Terror.

TIFFIN, April 30.—Sells Brothers' Circus was exhibiting at the fair grounds today. A wind storm blew down and destroyed all the tents, fortunately the performance was over. There was a panic among the few persons remaining, and the animals in the menagerie were wild with terror. None escaped, however.

THE REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

A Meeting of the Sub-Executive Committee of the League.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The second day's session of the sub-committee of the League of Republican Clubs was held today. The Executive Committee was to have been selected by the delegates to the National Convention at Cincinnati last week, but some of the delegates preferred to consult with their own organization before the selection.
